

Original Artworks

Utah Lake (left) is a multi-paneled landscape located on the North wall of the Senate Chamber, painted by Lee Greene Richards and A.B. Wright

Dream of Brigham Young (top), by Vincente Aderente, located on the West wall of the House Chamber. Jim Bridger and the Discovery of the Great Salt Lake, (bottom) by Alonzo Earl Foringer, located on the east wall of the Senate Chamber

These "lunettes" are located on either end of the rotunda, painted by Girard Hale and Thomas Gilbert White: The Arrival of the Pioneers in the Great Salt Lake Valley (top), and Reclaiming the Desert by Irrigation (bottom).

Caroline Bridge, located in the historic Supreme Court Chamber, and painted by Henry L. A. Culmer

Children at Play, by Louis Schaettle, located on the ceiling of the Gold Room