

ARTS & EDUCATION

SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY

IMMIGRATION & SETTLEMENT

Brigham Young, sculpted by Kraig Varner, is located in the north alcove on the second floor.

Land & Community, Arts & Education, Science & Technology, and Immigration & Settlement (together called “The Great Utahns,”), were sculpted by Eugene Daub, Robert Firmin, and Jonah Hendrickson to fill the four niches in the rotunda.

Four lions, called Fortitude, Integrity, Honor, and Patience, were carved by Nicholas Fairplay and installed outside the east and west entrances to the Capitol building in 2008.