

Original Artworks

Utah Lake (left) is a multi-paneled landscape located on the North wall of the Senate Chamber, painted by Lee Greene Richards and A.B. Wright.

Dream of Brigham Young (top), by Vicente Aderente, located on the West wall of the House Chamber. Jim Bridger and the Discovery of the Great Salt Lake, (bottom) by Alonzo Earl Foringer, located on the east wall of the Senate Chamber.

These "lunettes" are located on either end of the rotunda, painted by Girard Hale and Thomas Gilbert White: The Arrival of the Pioneers in the Great Salt Lake Valley (top), and Reclaiming the Desert by Irrigation (bottom).

Augusta Bridge, located in the historic Supreme Court Chamber, is painted by Henry L. A. Culmer.

Children at Play, by Louis Schaettle, located on the ceiling of the Gold Room.